

Portable Printmaking with Young People.

If you are looking for a one-off workshop or Arts Week activity for your school that offers something completely different why not try printmaking with Red Hot Press?

You can look through examples of our previous outreach work and projects on the Outreach Projects section of our website:

<http://www.redhotpress.org.uk/outreach/>

Katherine Antoney and Sarah Mander (Red Hot Press) have over 10 years experience of running projects in schools and youth settings. We have Public liability Insurance to the value of £5,000,000 and we hold current Enhanced CRB Disclosures.

Here is some feedback from projects we have run:

“the children were really buzzing after the session”

- Teacher at Shirley Warren School following our Impact in Print project.

‘Thank you for having the students. They really enjoyed themselves and did some fantastic work ! Thank you !

- Rose Parkhouse Head of Creative Arts Oasis Academy Lord’s Hill following our Impact in Print project.

‘Following a very successful International Fortnight I would like to say thank you so much for coming along and doing the printing workshops with Year 1 and year 5. Their finished boxes looked great and they thoroughly enjoyed the experience. After you left they went on to finish off the boxes with more printed designs of flags and letters. The teachers all found it a very valuable experience’.

- Sarah Willoughby, Deputy Head Hook with Warsash Primary School following a 2 day workshop.
